

CITIZENSHIP TOOLS : Be Informed, Be Involved, Vote!

A free, workshop for new citizens and Saint Paul voters to learn about local government, discover how to request improvements in your neighborhood, and meet elected officials.

Please join the League of Women Voters—Saint Paul at our workshop, "Citizenship Tools: Be Informed, Be Involved, Vote!" for an overview of Federal, State and City Government as well as an opportunity to meet and question elected officials. We have confirmed that Mary Vanderwert (School Board Member), Chris Tolbert and Rebecca Noecker (City Council Members) will be in attendance. Additional elected officials through the state level have been invited.

WHEN | Saturday, February 25, 2017 8:30 a.m.— 12:30 p.m.

- 8:30-9:00 Registration
- 9:00-9:15 Welcome by Secretary of State, Steve Simon
- 9:15-10:15 Metropolitan State University Political Science Professor Matthew Filner will walk through the process of influencing public policy, being an active “constituent” and running for public office. He will also cover the nuts and bolts of the federalist system and what levels of government are important for each area of public policy.
- 10:15-10:30 Break with refreshments
- 10:30-12:30 Participants will sit at tables with elected officials. You will be given about 20 minutes to exchange questions, answers and comments with each official.
